HAVE A WORKSHOP IN MIND? NOW'S YOUR CHANCE

Development Opportunity

Last year's GPT "workshop" program was terrific. Several people got to try their hand at directing and staging a short play of their own creation. Here's how it works:

1. You indicate an interest in putting together a theatrical presentation (or it could be an educational presentation relating to something of interest to the GPT membership)
2. You contact the Education Chairman (Jef Fisk) If there is an opening and your idea is feasible, you get the go-ahead
3. You select your cast, prepare the presentation, conduct rehearsals, work out the details of staging, etc.
4. At a GPT membership meeting, you stage your short production for the GPT membership

If you'd like an opportunity to put on a short presentation, we're looking for someone to present a "workshop" at the September 15th membership meeting.

ANNIE WARBUCKS SCENE SHOP NEEDS HELP

Tech Chair of AW, Rick Hawley, sorely needs help on Saturday mornings and Tuesday evenings at the scene shop at 315 Fisher Road. NOT ONE PERSON was in attendance last Tuesday. Rick presented the very creative set at the last Board meeting and he can certainly use some help. Lunch is served on Saturdays and the fridge is always full.

VOTE 4 GPT!!

Click on the link below and start voting. We came in 5th last year, do you honestly believe there are four theater groups better than ours!
